PREFACE.

The second volume of the Transcript of the Marriage Registers of St. Dunstan's, Stepney, commences 20th March, 1640, and is continued down to 24th March, 1696, containing part of Book III and part of Book IV of the original Register Books. There is a gap from Sept., 1653—June, 1658, excepting for three marriages in the latter part of the year 1657.

In this volume the influence of the French immigration will be clearly seen by the increase of foreign names, and the growth of the parish is shown by the large number of marriages in each year.

There are numerous entries relating to the old seafaring families of Stepney, and amongst these the marriage on 23rd Feb., 1691, of Stephen Martin, the brother-in-law of Admiral Sir John Leake, to whom as his epitaph has it in the churchyard, "he was still more closely united by the strictest acquaintance, having been his Captain and shared the same common Dangers in 20 years Wars."

The marriage of Anna Rider, 26th May, 1674, is not without interest, as it will recall the visit of Pepys to her father, Sir William Rider, at Bethnal Green, which he recounts in his Diary under date of 26th June, 1663.

I hope to be able to bring out a third volume, from 1697 down to the period of Lord Hardwicke's Marriage Act of 1753.

Lastly I have to thank the subscribers to Vol. I for their kind support, and to express my indebtedness to the Rev. A. E. Dalton, Rector of Stepney, for allowing me to print these Registers.
